REPORTS TO REVIEW	Principal Report
DISCUSSION	School Grade went to a "C" status by 1.6 points, will find out reasons during District Meeting. Tutoring TLS will begin in January with 2 teachers who will be targeting those students on the cusp to increase their grades for State testing. EL's did show growth, EX Ed is struggling. Benchmark testing for Quarter 2 begins next week. Because Ms. Quinones was not in attendance, Ms. Ronsman stated that Ms. Quinones had been able to aid several families for the holiday. Ms. Ronsman stated that 5 th grade will be doing a Community Service event as part of their STARBASE commitment and will be raising funds to purchase tactical vest for Military K9's. Student council raised money by offering free dress for $1.00 which will take place Nov. 29 th , and will be used to purchase Paint Powder for students to participate in a color run if they increase their Benchmark scores by 10% or better. The school is looking to host a Career Day with vehicles around February or

	March. More details will be presented when closer. Ms. Corrales stated that she would look into UA vehicles that may be able to participate.
